“Wow, it’s hard to imagine your not going to call me, “hey you making that soup, Spanish stuff” giggle. Hey, I need cigarettes. Anyone that knew you, knew you had a wee bit of a temper and I sure seen it a few times, more than I’d liked, for sure. I’m truly grateful for my time shared with you. I’ll miss you terribly!! Rest, I know you’ve found peace. Till we see each other again. See ya latter!

My memories of Karen go back to when we were children. The twins and I were inseparable cousins running around the ole farm stead, and stopping only to sing our favorite songs, on the front porch swing. Karen was to little to keep up, but I remember thinking she was one of the prettiest toddlers ever. It’s with a great sense of sadness having missed getting to know her better. My heart goes out to Brenda and Jimbo. I send my love and heart filled condolences for your loss. Love you all ❤️ cousin Faye
