“ Kathy I don't even know where to begin. When you and Bridget were sent to me to precept you two on nights, I knew IMMEDIATELY that I had some seriously kick-ass little nurses on my team now which is exactly what I needed!!!! Niether one of you showed an ounce of fear, never shyed away from the code 99's..... irreplaceable. And I am struggling right now trying to make even a little bit of sense come from this insanity. I just loved your heart girl..... your spirit, your humor, your in your face personality. Everything about you. You are missed.

“ 🌸 I remember your wonderful laugh, your beautiful smile, and your tight curly locks, always ready to go do something! Never a dull moment... I'm sorry I missed saying goodbye today, I'm in New Jersey, giving comfort to my brother in law and Mother in law in a time of great need.
I pray that in some way your family and friends find comfort. Hope to meet again - Rachel “ Kathy, you're proof that we've had angels on earth -- helping many to heal just as the Savior did. Keep it up on the other side. Until we meet again.

“ I loved you from the day we meet back in middle school. You never made me doubt your friendship. Through out life we lost touch but when we reconnected you were still the same girl. In school your family opened their home to me when I needed it. I cant even begin to pull one memory that I can say stands out - all of them are treasured. From laughter in the halls of the school, to Glamor Shots (Imao that was a hoot), to me hitting you with the my car. Everything was always so easy with you. Thank you for being THAT girl- THAT friend and THAT woman in my life. You will be missed and I will forever remember you as my original ride or die! xoxoxoxo
