“ I did not know Kelli. I heard of your loss from friends at Victory Martial Arts Academy. I lost my husband in January of this year, so I feel your loss deeply. I know what you are going through and my heart goes out to you all, family and friends. Know that you are in my thoughts and prayers. Much love to you all. ~~Renee Ravencraft Bierbaum

“ Our paths crossed at Durant High School, but it wasn't until we had assumed the roles of wife and mother that we became friends. She personally apologized for thinking I was a so-called "snob" in high school. She didn't have to take the time to know the real me, but I'm so thankful that she did. I will always remember the benefit tea that I attended for Kelli and how honored I was to be there. I have known God for quite some time, but Kelli helped me know him that much better. I know this isn't goodbye, but it is a momentary separation. I just ask that she leave a place, lots of grace, one of her smiles, and a hug waiting for me.

“ I'm so grateful to have had the opportunity to have you as a friend! You were the most inspiration person that I know and handled your situation with grace and showed God's love!!! I'm so happy for the memories that I will always have, high school, calendar girl, just hanging out and then when we had little girls we took then to the Strawberry Festival Parade and enjoyed baby showers and birthday parties together!! I will miss you very much, but I know that you are not suffering anymore. Lots of love!!

“ I did not have the pleasure of knowing Kelli, but I know the Hines Family and followed her story on facebook. This was a very special young woman. She touched many lives, more than she could even realize. We walked this journey with her, praying for her and her family all the way. There is peace in knowing that she is singing with the Angels in Heaven. Like the song says, "I Can Only Imagine", Kelli does not have to imagine anymore. RIP Sweet Kelli. Deepest condolences to the family and friends.
