“ Julie, Adam and Kailyn,

What a wonderful, dear and faithful friend Kenny was to so many. Kenny always acted as my "Big Brother". During a very difficult and painful time in my own life, Kenny never failed to email me a prayer during the day, almost daily. He believed in the power of prayer. Kenny knew His Savior, and he had a intimate relationship with Him. He reminded me to run to Jesus. He would always tell me, "You need to crawl up in your Fathers lap and let Him wrap His arms around you". I believe that is what Kenny would say to his loved ones as we grieve for him. I know the first thing Kenny did when He reached Heaven..... I can see him now sitting in His Father's lap." The faith that he lived out and the lives that he touched is a legacy that will continue throughout generations. We may never see on this side of heaven all the eternal effects that Kenny had on those he knew.

Now, to my dear friend Kenny;

As I face each day, and whatever that day may bring, I will always remember to "Crawl up in my Daddy's lap and let Him wrap His arms around me". So long my friend, I can't wait til we meet again!

Love,

Darlene

“ So many smiles and laughs shared between Earnie ,Me, Kenny and Julie. From baseball moments at Pinecrest Little League to our children's growing pains...Lots of memories to hold on to and we are holding on very tight to those precious times. From coaching moments with flowery pants... To umpire moments.. "Did he go?!?!"... To the almighty bananas pre-game snack...We have shared so much! True friends are those you may not see or even speak with for periods of time.. But then when you do you just pickup where you left off and continue on. Tonite we did just that with Julie, Adam , Becky and Kaylyn... But there was one big piece missing. We are so thankful to know when we enter heaven one day we will be able to pickup where we left off and our circle of friendship will be complete! We love you Kenny Jameson and look forward to our reunion in heaven one day until then... " Play Ball!"
