“ Mr. Dance was a dear friend. He always made us laugh at work and treated us with such love and respect. His hugs each morning made our day so special. I especially love remembering him singing so many old songs and telling jokes but especially getting on the floor at 87 years old playing with my dog Gracie. Mr. Dance you will be missed so much and I cherish the privilege of knowing you. I know that God is using you in His heavenly choir.
