“ Kevin, you were more than just a brother-in-law to me. You were there for some of the greatest moments of my life, one of them being the day you married my sister. You were also there for some of the lowest. You always treated me the same. You accepted me for who I was and helped me through the tough times. My husband G and I are so grateful you had a part in your wedding. We love you brother! Love G & Lezlee.

“ Hello and a smile. I saw you a handful of times as I was “Larkyn’s friend” from childhood. I really only got to say hello to you when I was dropping something off or ran into you guys somewhere. But I remember always thinking afterwards how kind of a smile you had and how polite you were to me, even though you didn’t “know” me. And with that thought, I always had a feeling afterwards of comfort. Comfort in knowing Larkyn was happy and being taken care of. You could just tell that you guys were best friends and that you meant the world to each other. That’s my memory of Kevin. He had a smile that made you feel pure and true happiness because he was happy. Larkyn is one of the greatest and truest friends I’ve had in my life and my heart is so broken for her.

“ Kevin was our Son-in-Law. You could not know a kinder, gentler, more patience husband and father. One of his favorite pastimes was to fire up the bar-be-que grill, turn on a little bit of country music, and pullout his famous homemade sauce and make something totally mouthwatering. Anyone who knew him was aware of his great love of the outdoors and showing his children the wonders of nature. To say that he will be missed is an extreme understatement.
