“ Tom, Olivia, Shirley, and Jennifer. I am so very sorry for your loss.

I will always remeber Kim's beautiful smile and wonderful personality. I first met Kim at PCE along with Jennifer, Sandy, and Debbie in tht late 90s. These members of the PCE Family welcomed me into their world during a difficult time in my life. Kim was a wonderful person. She had an awesome smile and an infectious sense of humor.

I pray that God will comfort you all during this difficult time in your lives. Love and Hugs to all!

“ Shirley, Olivia, and Tom, Words cannot express our sorrow for your family. I have met you all only a few times but know of you through my 20 years knowing Shirley and, of course, all of the wonderful photos and postings on FaceBook. Following Kim's journey the past few years has been poignant and bitter-sweet at times, but I will always think of her in terms of the determination and strength that she showed to all of us in her resolve to never quit. I will always remember her for her positive inspiration and, especially, for her humor. That apple did not fall far from the tree. She will be missed. Our hearts go out to you and Kim's family and friends. We love you.
