Lamar, we will miss you so much, it was much fun visiting you and Mary Nell this spring!! I remember your Uncle Jess telling us to go to town and buy some hunting licenses and report back to him with the licenses, those were some good days. You have been a blessing to us and to so many others.

“ Lamar was an example of what a great Man, Husband, Trooper, Mentor and Friend should be. He will be missed but not forgotten.

“ When I was in high school and college, I rode many a mid-night shift with Lamar. He was a great example of what a Florida State Trooper should be. Courteous, kind and fair, and all without prejudice. Along with Seymour Sparkman, and David Mitchell, Lamar was responsible for my personal interest in law-enforcement and respect for those who serve. For that, I will be eternally grateful.

I will always cherish the hospitality shown me by Lamar and his wonderful wife Mary Nell. My thoughts and prayers are with her and the family at this time of loss.

“ Uncle Lamar was full of joy, which transcended all worldly circumstances (even when he didn't catch any fish he was still somehow cheerful).

Somewhere up in heaven now there's a beat up blue truck with rusty tubs of crabs in the back racing down a sandy shore. And I'll just bet he's finally learning to open up a cast net.

He and my Dad were on the FHP at the same time and I always loved going to all the get-togethers and hanging out with the family. I have always thought a lot of Mrs. Maxwell and all the kids. They all have a special place in my heart. I can see Lamar and my Dad in heaven talking up a storm. It is a good feeling to know one day we will be with them. Dear Mary Nell, Suzanne, Steve, Scott and sheri.... we were so saddened to hear of Bro. Lamar's passing just a few days ago. All of our Family have loved you all since Daddy and Lamar served as Deacons and all of us grew up at Cross Roads. My Mother and Daddy always thought of you as faithful friends. Praying for all of you and your families that the Lord gives you peace that only he can give. So many sweet memories.....as a new nurse I was so excited to help care for Ms. Mary Nell and when they had Sheri.....! Seems like yesterday and know that Lamar was a man of Character and love of the Lord. Love and hugs, Rick, Lynn, Sarah, Johnathan, Joshua and Betty DeHart... (Mama sends her love and prayers_.
