“ I shared this on facebook and I feel like its the best thing I can share about Lance...

*Making jokes in Marine Science and kickin it in the courtyard.
Talking bout life and how being a father was crazy but how you were ready to do whatever it took to be a good one & you were.
Always said we needed to link up but life kept getting in the way. Im sick to my stomach that I have to make this. Your time was cut short and I dont know why God needed you home this early..watch over us bro. I wish we saw each other before this horrible tragedy. I cherish the times I had with you and you were a real one. Your time with me and im sure everyone wont be forgotten and we love you bro. God bless and rest easy brother.*
