“ For Mother. As I look back on my life,I find myself wondering...Did I remember to thank you for all you have done for me?For all the times you were by my side,to help me celebrate my successes and accept my defeats?Or for teaching me the value of hard work,good judgment,courage and honesty?I eonder if i ever thanked you for the simple things.....The laughter,smiles and quiet times we shared? If I have forgotten to express my graditude,for any of these things,Iam thanking you now.....and I am hoping you have known all along how very much you are loved and appreciated.

“ I love you kids, like you are my own, instead of being your Aunt. Pease know I am ALWAYS, ALWAYS, here for you. LaRue is my sister, a loving, wonderful person with the strength of an elephant and the softness of a teddy bear. She is a remarkable woman. She has shown how to over come the hardships and still be strong. Her laughter fills the room, as does her smile. We have had a lot of good times together through the years. I don't speak of her in past tense because she will always be alive in my heart and soul. I only wish I could be with you, to hold you, comfort you, give you strength for you while you overcome your loss. I am with you all in heart and soul forever. Please reach out to me, I will be there to listen. I LOVE YOU ALL SO DEARLY Ivy, Haley, Dayton, Delanie, ShaRee and Danny. God Bless each and every one of you. I am SO sorry for your loss. Love, Aunt Cindy

“ Dan, My sincere condolences. I never met her, but knowing you and having met others in your family, I know she had to be a wonderful lady. Judging by her photo, very pretty, too. If there is anything I can do, I will. I hope you and Lacey are doing well, all things considered. Call me next time you get to Florida.

“ Dann,
We work very closely together and yet I find myself at a loss for words. (can you believe it) So, I'll simply say I'm sorry for you and your family. I'm sure as you share memories over the next few days, you will find comfort.
With sincere condolences,
Edwena
