

Mrs. Laura Moore Cartmill

April 23, 2015

CARTMILL, Laura Ann Moore, 68, of Brandon, Florida, went home to be with the Lord on April 23, 2015. She was born in 1946 to James and Evelyn Moore. She was raised in the Oak Park area of Tampa, was a member of Oak Park Baptist Church, and for many years worked at the family business, Taylor's Fish Market. She and her husband Don were actively involved throughout their lives with the Shriners organization. She was a member of Elim Temple Number 76, Daughters of the Nile. She is survived by her daughter, Mylisa Lee Cartmill of Valrico; and uncle, Horace Taylor of Tampa. She was preceded in death by her husband of 40 years, James Donald Cartmill; and parents, James and Evelyn Moore. A celebration of life will be held on Saturday, May 2 at 11:00 A.M. at Oak Park Baptist Church, 4901 E. 10th Ave, Tampa. The family will receive friends beginning at 10:00 A.M., and a reception will immediately follow graveside services. Interment at Garden of Memories, Tampa. “ Our thoughts and prayers are with Laura's family during this difficult time. Laura had a laugh and a smile that would "light up a room!" We won't forget Laura's fun loving spirit and the way she loved her daughter Mylisa and her family. She was "old school," she worried about others and would always be there if you needed her! You will be missed Laura, but your life will be celebrated and remembered with love and some pretty awesome memories remembered by all that knew you! We love you, Marty, Polly Wes, Jen, Kimberly, Mckynlee and Tanner Simpson.

“ Laura Ann was related to me by marriage. Her Uncle Jack Taylor was married to my Aunt Tikey. Oftentimes I would see Laura Ann and her Mom, Evelyn, at the fish market. Life is fragile at best and to often we forget the truly important things in our lives. I'm sure Laura Ann enjoyed being with her family, friends. At this time I wish to express my deepest condolences to the family of Laura Ann and her friends. They will miss her dearly, but always keep her memory in their hearts.
