“ Laura was my best friend all through middle school. Laura was a amazing person inside and out, never spoke a unkind word, always happy, alway looking at the best in everyone. As we grew up we lost touch in and out I wish we hadn't. Laura brought he best out in me and I will be eternally grateful to her for that. I have and will continue tolove and miss her.I dearly.

“ Even though I wasn't close to her. I kind of knew her, we used to ride the bus together, and we were in the same graduating class. everytime I seen her she had a smile on her face. she will be greatly missed, as I said before I didn't know her that well but she made an impact on my life.

“ I have so many memories and fond moments of Laura and her family that I can't even begin to try to write them all down. But I do remember that when we met I didn't even know Laura's name for the first three months. Even not knowing I still thought it'd be funny to pull her hair and poke her until she was laughing so hard in class that she would fall out of her seat and make a spectacle out of herself. She would tell everyone she would bring over to my house that story and then she would plop down next to me on my big couch and snuggle up to me and play with my hair. She was such an important person to so many people that I'm sure this page could be filled with hundreds of stories of her crazy antics and moments of profound wisdom. I'll miss her dearly and will do my best to keep her memory alive with smiles and laughs because that's what her memory truly deserves.

“ All the memories I have of Laura would be good like her texting me randomly texting me "hey sugar" or her random I love yous. But the best one I have would be the very first conversation I had with her. She randomly added me on facebook after me thinking she hated me and was talking about how she wanted us to be friends. It takes a big person to do something like she did. But I'm extremely happy she did. Its truly a blessing to have the honor of calling her one of my really good friends. We might not of knew each other long, or very well, but from what I did know of her, I guess god was just missing one of angels. She was the most amazing young woman I have ever know. Kind, loving, sweet, caring, and such a beautiful soul. Souls like her really don't seem to last long on this earth. But I know she has touched every single one of us in different ways but affected us all the same. Her loss was devastating but at least she's in a better place looking down on all of us. Laura, I love you and miss you. You had a beautiful service and I'm so happy I could make it. Your family and friends were extremely supportive. RIP babygirl you deserve it.

“ I am sincerely distraught that I cannot attend Laura's services. I spent such little time with her but the profound effect she had on me by just being the awesome, lively and fierce woman that she was is something that I can never forget. To feel such anguish just from listening to the same songs she blasted in her car makes it so much harder to imagine how this must feel for the people who were so much closer to her. She has clearly touched many lives and will be missed more than anyone can say. My sincerest condolences to her closest friends and family and may she rest in peace now that her rightful justice has been given.

“ Laura was more than a wonderful person, I found out first hand. I was and always will so proud to be called her "Black Brother" like she always called me. I will miss her physically but mentally and spiritually I know she's always here. I want to take this moment to thank her mom for sharing such a wonderful blessing with me and many others that she called her daughter. Rest in peace Laura gone but never forgotten. I love you girl.

“ Laura was one of the greatest, wisest, nicest, people I know, she was there for me in times of need and someone to talk to about anything from women advice to the awesomeness of a game. Not a day will go by that I miss her deeply. She was truly the one person who would always be my friend no matter what. I will always love her and remember her with great fondness.

“ I knew Laura through working at Books-A-Million. She seemed older than her years and I was surprised when she told me she was only 20. She was beautiful inside and out, and only saw the good in others.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with all of Laura's friends and family. I hope they all know she was loved and will be greatly missed. I will cherish the memories of her bringing over fresh baked brownies, cooking chicken with me in my kitchen, laughing at last years Gasparilla parade, and the many fun times she enjoyed with her friend, my son. He has the blanket she made him by hand for his birthday a couple years ago as a wonderful reminder of her many talents and huge heart. It is a cherished remberacne for him now. I can't even begin to imagine how awful this is for all of you, but I hope you find some comfort in the memory of her beautiful smile, and I know she is watching over us all know, and is at peace. With my deapest sympathy, Belinda Casey

“ I knew Laura when I was a Junior and Senior at Plant City High, she was a wonderful girl. Always full of spirit and happiness, I'm glad the memories I have of her will always be some of the best of my entire HS years. She was that person you look forward to seeing because she always made you feel better. Most of all she never fell into the rumors that were spread about me, and always supported me no matter what. One of a kind person in life. The pain of her loss is large, but knowing she can rest peacefully is nice. Knowing she can't be hurt now, and she can watch us all grow up and live on, because that is what we must do. It's what she would want. My condolences go out to her entire family, I can't possibly imagine how hard this is. Just remember to smile, as Laura always would.

“ My daughter Amanda was friends with Laura when they were in high school together. I remember seeing Laura not too long ago at the book store where she worked, and thought to myself, "wow, what a beautiful young lady she is growing into." My heart has felt so heavy over this loss for so many different reasons. I cannot even imagine what her parents must be feeling. My thoughts and prayers are with the entire family. May God comfort you and help you through this difficult time.

“ I pray for your entire family!
I did not know your beautiful daughter, Laura but I have read the story about her death. We lost our 26 year old son 2 years ago this month and Yes the days do go on and they will eventually get better but the hurt and loss in a parents heart will never go away. The precious memories you have will certainly help in the coming days. The sibilings left behind need to remember all the fun and loving times that they had growing up together. Do not dwell on how she left this earth as this will only bring you down (I know) to a very unhappy place. Instead always remember her smile and her love remember that she is in Gods hands now and let God handle the rest. Again, I will pray for the entire family and friends of Laura and may your hearts be ever so happy in the memories that you all have of her.

She was a good friend of mine my senior year. I could have never imagined something like this could happen to such a good hearted person. My heart is with her and her family.
