“ Ms. Alley and I became neighbors beginning in 1969 when my parents bought the house across the street. Later a great friendship began when she asked if I would water her plants while she was visiting North Carolina in the summer. Then later in years, drove her to her weekly hair appointments and we would stop and have lunch. I always told her that "God had blessed her". She was truly a Lady and loved life. I will miss her but am confident that she is in heaven.
