“ Ginger, I remember Leo from TCHS days. He often gave me a ride to school, and scared me half to death with his speed and daring. He loved his old & fast cars. He and his sister Minnie Lou were special people. I lost my wife 18 years ago & God has helped me deal with the loss. Time helps, but he will always be in your heart. God bless you, Travis Walker

Thank you Travis. Leo would laugh that he scared you. My brother also scared you in the boat in pond behind our house when you lived off of Sparkman Road.

“ There are so many memories about this man to mention. He was such a great friend to me and my family JD & Sandra Deas and we loved him with all our hearts and we knew he loved us the same. He has been a part of my life all my life. From the motorcycle clubs when I rode between my mom and dad, the drag strips, Ironworking with my dad, going to Crooms singing the whole way, to go dirt biking or racing enduros. OMG! He was such a daredevil on his motorcycle and I wanted to be just like him. He climbed hills that were unclimbable. He and dad were so much alike. They were like kids and They always made life fun. I remember how Leo scared us to pieces while driving in the Jimmy in the mountains and the fun we had at Maggie Valley. He always had a big soft heart and would do anything for you. I remember when my dad died and when he walked thru the door, I mistook him for my dad because they had features alike and always wore the long sleeve snap denim shirt. He was a great man, a kind man, hard working man and loving family man and will be greatly missed. I feel blessed to have had him as part of our lives. Now all the guys are back together again. Heaven will have a few mischievous Angels for sure! We are all heartbroken and Our thoughts and prayers are with you Ginger, Todd and family. Love y'all.
