“ Leola had one of the most noninfectious laughs I have ever heard. She loved every body, and if you knew her, you loved her. Leola lived what she believed. The years I went too church with Leola and Bro. Chancey is filled with memories I will always treasure. My love and prayers go out too her family. Patricia Varnum

“ I didn't spent a lot of time with the Chancey's growing up. Every memory I have of the both of them is pleasant. The best memory I have is that they were Christian. There is nothing greater than that to say about someone. Mrs, Chancey is celebrating in the presence of Jesus and seeing Mr. Chancey again. Praise God for a life well lived!

Mrs Leola Chancey, Mama as I used to call her, was the sweetest person. I got to know her about 2013. And it was lime love at first site between us. At that time I interact with her an her husband as her Home Health Aide, but during that time and until her last moment we shared like mother and dauther. I loved her very much and she loved me. At all time she will let me know how much she cares and love me. May she rest in peace and the good lord have her in the highest place. She was a very kind lady to everyone she came across. God bless you Mama, until we meet in other life. 🌸💕
