“ I was saddened to hear of your passing Mr Connors. Heaven has gained not only an angel but a good, decent Christian man! he was my attorney. He was also a good friend. He would tell me stories about life and his experiences making me laugh when all I wanted to do was cry. I had to fight to keep my kids for no good reason and he was my saving grace. Knowledgeable n compassionate always. he let me make payments when nobody else would. i always knew God sent me to him. I will miss you my friend! prayer to you and your family, Joan.

“ I remember having a Cajun boil at Len's house once. He poured an entire huge pot of veggies and fish on a rolled-out brown paper across a large picnic table. Len did everything large and generous. We were friends for 33 years and my husband Bill and I have never known a kinder more generous and caring man. We know the Lord will care for his family in his absence and we know he is rejoicing with his Savior.

“ Dad loved to sing. I remember sitting in the back seat of the car and Dad and I would sing "Praise the Lord" by Russ Taff.
