“ Him & his wife Carol took care of my Grandchildren Miranda & Garrett. They were like Grandparents to them. I met him through David & saw him at Salem Church many times.
I am so glad I bought 4 of his paintings. He was very talented.
I know his Sister, Donna, is also going to miss him.
With sympathy to the family. Now he can be with Carol again!

“ Uncle Pete was the sweetest and loving Uncle. He loved his family and grandchildren and great grandchildren. I never saw him get upset. He loved his Lord and Savior. And love to share his love for him to others. We love and miss you Uncle Pete. Please tell Daddy and many more of our loved ones we love and miss them. Debbie
