“ Oh how I will miss my sweet friend. She was always greeting me with a big smile and warm hug. The Lord sent her by my home one day and ministered to me in a time of great need. We both knew it was no coincidence. She was always ready to help anyone whenever she could. Aunt Faye was one of the most important women in my life. We will meet again over there and what a day that will be to sit at the feet of Jesus and give Him glory for the things He has done. Prayers for the family.

“ I loved this precious lady as my second momma and she influenced my life so much at a young age. She was such an example to all of us. A true Christian woman who prayed for so many. What a legacy she leaves. I'm sure my momma gave her a huge welcome to heaven when she met Jesus. What a reunion she is having with her family. Love and prayers to all the family. Love y'all very Much.
