“ Thank you Linda, for being so much a part of my life growing up. The memories of the house in Olde Farm, hanging out with you and Al, flood my mind and emotions. You always lifted my spirits and made me laugh. There will always be a place in my heart for you, Al, Maria and your mother. I love you.##imported-begin##Randy Smith##imported-end##

“ To Linda's family; I can not express my sincere sadness and the loss I feel by Linda's passing. I had planned all summer to get down there and never made it. I know she's at peace now and with Al and I know we are to rejoice in her everlasting life, however, her loss is truly a sad event in lives of us who loved her. She was always funny, always willing to have a good time and she so loved her kids. The memories of her will always put a smile on my face.##imported-begin##Cathi Black Steele##imported-end##

“ To Maria...and the rest of the family & friends, words just are not enough. I really can't believe that she is gone. She always seemed to light up a room when she walked in with that smile...always so upbeat. You all are in my prayer's. Big hugs to you Maria..you've been through too much girl. love you, Cheryl##imported-begin##Cheryl Ann Black Battista##imported-end##
