“ Dear Mr. Young, We have not met, but you work with my husband Sam who has talked about you and your wife with me from time to time. Sam spoke of your love and support for your beautiful wife encouraging her thru her fight with diabetes. We pray that the Lord will give you His strength to get you through these extremely difficult times. If we can help in any way.... Sam has some insight as he is fighting the battle with this terrible malady too. God Bless You and your family. Love, SAM & TERRI##imported-begin##Sam & Terri Hart##imported-end##

“ Dear Family, We wish you strength to deal with the grief you face. We know that you all did everything humanly possible to help Lisa survive her terrible illness, but to no avail. No one would have wished her years of the torture she was experiencing. Her pain & suffering is now over, but yours continues. All you can do is focus on the good times you recall. All our best wishes, B&J.##imported-begin##Bill & Joyce MacDonald##imported-end##

“ I was shocked when Shawn called and told me that Lisa had gone to be with our Lord. I knew she had been ill for many years, I just didn't know how ill. Even though I had not seen Lisa in many years, I always remember her humor and her smile. She could light up a room with her laughter. We will all miss her very much. My thoughts and prayers are with you. Tara Davis###imported-begin###Tara Davis (Nelson)###imported-end##
