“ I will always have warm memories of Aunt Lois and Uncle Coy. Our last visit was on April 14, 2012. She was in a good mood that day and talked about how much she loved her sisters.

My mother, Helen Liles, wants Aunt Lois' family to know that she was a good and kind sister-in-law.

We will miss her.

Miss Lois was a wonderful person with a sweet smile that lit up the Plant City Towers for many years. She was a loving friend to my mom and we will all miss her. Melinda Hawkins Daughter of Faye Frasure
