“ I have taken some time to reflect after the shock of Lonnie's sudden passing, I think about how Lonnie worked with us on several projects always showing his great skill as a painter, his great kindness as a man and his gentleness in his spirit. All of these things will be missed, I wish the best for his family at this time of loss.

“ Lonnie has painted many homes in Lake Forest. Our house was the last he painted here. He finished just before he went to be with the Lord. I got to know Lonnie during the time he was painting our house and I liked him. He was kind and thoughtful and he was also a great painter. We had just had a terrible experience with a company who we had to fire for essentially making a disaster of our house. I hired Lonnie and was so impressed with his work that I had hoped to have him do more work later. But that time will never come. Lonnie will be missed her in Lake Forest for his smile, his kindness and his courtesy.

I just found out. Lonnie has painted my homes many times over the last 30 years as well as many of my clients. He was a perfectionist and always worked hard to do his best. I consider him a friend and will miss our talks. Rest In Peace.

I can't remember when I first met Lonnie but I'd guess somewhere in the mid 60s he was in my brother Tom Schroeders class. Lonnie always made me laugh once we were out of school we became better friends at that time 76-77 there was a pub in Brandon named Woodbutchers and we'd go there often we'd wait for someone to go to the restroom then go over to their table and guzzle their pitcher of beer and sit back down and laugh so hard when they'd look around and wonder where'd my beer go😂 Last seen him at the Clair Mel City Reunion in Cedar Key in 2010 and at that time it had been many years since I'd seen him and guess what he hadn't changed one bit. I'll miss him.

“ We knew Lonnie over 30 years. A kind, generous spirit, an artist with a paintbrush, a friend. So sorry that his time ended so soon, so happy that we were blessed to know him. Our best wishes to Lonnie's family and other friends. Jack and Mary Rader
