These pictures are precious. The smiles and the shine that she developed through the years is an inspiration. She endured some difficult times in her life, but she refused to give into a lifetime of unhappiness and as I can see, she lived life to the fullest in her later years, the years that some of us always think you can't. She left me with some fond childhood memories and I will always cherish them. She is flying with the Angels now and as sad as I am that life kept me from spending the time with her she had hoped for, I know that I will see her again and she will have her tomato's and rice ready for me when I get there. God Bless you Louise. Something tells me you and Mom are hanging out!! <3

“ I will always remember Louise making the best black eyed peas and rice!!! Sweet tea was always in the house. I would volunteer to shuck peas for her just so we could get them faster!! Loved seeing her in Publix because she always had a smile and a hug. See ya when I get to the other side. Love and miss ya. Pam Pittman Lane

“ Louise, I am sure that you know without a shadow of a doubt how much you meant to our Publix family. It is not many people that have an up close and personal relationship with people They work with. That relationship that started so long ago developed into a personal and loving family. You are going to be missed so very much. You were a one of a kind lady that's for sure. You are one that we can all aspire to be like ❤️
