“ When I was a Little girl at a family reunion I remember Lowell was a grown young man, was asked to say the blessing. He asked the Blessin and then he said “Lord don't let all that banana pudding get eat before I get some.” He was funny and sweet and God fearing. Rest in the arms of God now Lowell. ”

“ My heart is so broken. Such a wonderful man. Him and my dad, Earl Jent, worked at the gas plant together. 4 years ago I went into Lowe's to tell him my brother Dwayne passed away. He grabbed me and hugged me so tight as started crying. Him and Cara came to the house to show their condolences. He was so special to us. May he RIP.
