“ I am a only child, by birth only. Actually I grew up Aunt Lucille's 10th child. I loved being there and stayed there as much as I was allowed. She made all my school clothes on a old treadle sewing machine. The house was big and had screen doors, I remember we would run through the house with both those doors opening and slamming as we chased each other. She never looked up from her sewing. Also, when it was time for "putting up peas the boys would pick and all the girls had these huge enamel dish pans FULL of peas to shell. We would sit on the front porch and she'll peas for days. So many memories!! I could never do them justice. But Aunt Lucille just know how much I loved you and Uncle Cordell. I know you are finally at peace. Joyce Styron Barrington

The yellow candle is from Daddy. He always sang Yellow Rose of Texas. please tell him how much I miss him.

“ I have so many memories of my grandma. . She was an amazing lady .. one if my favorite memories is when I walked I'm her back door to find her standing in front if her stove with a very angry little 2 year old Zachary Cleveland wanting her to peel his banana .. she couldn't get him to understand it was a wooden banana .. any lordy day she was out of real ones .. it's the little memories like that that put a smile on your face ! RIP Grandma .. till we meet again I will cherish your memory!
