“ Lynda was my dear friend many, many years ago. She, TJ and I were a threesome, bowling, living together for a time- lots of laughter, and talks about our children, work, etc - Lynda suffered tremendously and TJ was a wonderful caretaker. They were “one”. I have not been in contact for many years as move to another state could not be accompanied personally. Lynda has always been in my heart - and TJ I’m so so sorry for her passing

“ My deepest condolences to Terry on the passing of his beloved wife, Lynda. Lynda was a very sweet and kind lady. Lynda was devoted to Terry, and he was completely devoted to her. They had a loving relationship that stood strong throughout their marriage, one to be admired as an example of loving and caring and giving. Several years ago, Terry and I had worked together at Admiral Testing Services, where he was a container ship surveyor of phosphate (I worked in the office.). In 2008, they came to my assistance when I had a pet dog pass away and I had no one to help me bury her. Terry and Lynda came to my home in Tampa to help. Lynda consoled me as Terry dug my pet's grave and we prayed afterward. I will always remember their kindnesses and offer my heartfelt sympathies to Terry and the family. God Bless All.

Lynda was a wonderful sisters-in-law and I have great memories of our family reunion's many years ago. So sorry she is gone however, thank God we have memories. God Bless T.J. He was a great husband.
