

Mrs. Lynn Brant

September 25, 2017

Lynn Brant, 58, died September 25, 2017, Jonesboro, AR. In a world that has gone completely mad, I am most proud in my latter life of swallowing my pride, turning a 180 and becoming a stanch follower of Jesus Christ, after all that is all that really matters in life, HIM!

Birth and death dates do not matter, it is the – (dash) that counts in God's eyes. My goal became, to make my dash count.

Services will be Saturday, September 30, at 11 a.m. at Calvary Tabernacle, 10930 US Hwy 301 N, Thonotosassa, Fl. Hopewell Funeral Home and Memorial Gardens, Plant City, Fl, will be in charge of arrangements.

Survivors are my husband, William Brant, Jonesboro, Ar; daughter, Diana Bell, Mulberry, Fl; three grandchildren, Kyle, Dylan and Kaydence Bell; mother, Kathy Graves, Plant City, Fl; father, Alonzo Graves, Hackleburg, Al; brother, Michael Graves, Little Rock, Ar; sister, Erika Pardee, Fayetteville, Ga; Aunt Laura Evans, Quitman, Ar; Uncle Larry and Aunt Sandi Graves, Hamilton, Al and Portage, In; Uncle Bob and Aunt Joyce McKnight, In. and six nieces and nephews, Courtney, Parker & Taylor Pope, Austin, Tyler & Ciara Pardee. and 15 cousins.

I was preceded in death by my siblings, brother, Jimmy Graves, sister, Tammy Pope. Aunt Marion and Uncle Kenny Munsey, and Uncle Arkie Evans. My Babies Diva, Angel, and Knight Brant (given to me by God), He gave them to me long before I was to need them. On that fateful day, (many yrs ago) they were the ones sent by God to save my life.

It was no accident years prior, before my sister passed away, God gave her the final task of impressing upon me, to get my precious babies. I didn't understand it back then, but later, He did confirm to me, that He had sent them, to be the ones to save my life. A life out of control, with pain beyond comprehension, I had no hope; no chance until HE intervened.

They, (Knight, Angel and Diva), did so much more than save my life that day, they gave me the love, love that I so longed to have. If your reading this and it touched your heart, (I have more to tell) and you are invited to my funeral too. As with God, you never know. He poured out so much on me....

As I discovered, God can use anything or anyone, for me, that is what HE chose, three incredibly precious babies.

I have one final request, for anyone attending my funeral. I ask that no one wear dark colors, Please. Men - with dark jackets should remove their jacket. Woman - Spring bouquet colors.

He let me know, that when He looks down from heaven, that is what He sees, a sea of black (sea of death and gloom), so if it seems odd to you, not to wear black, (I understand, I have never been to a funeral and not wore it myself). However, I am going home to be with JESUS, it will be the happiest day of my life, which is the reason for my request. God's Blessings!
