“ Nana lived her entire life for her children and grandchildren..even her great grands. She provided for us all above and beyond the call of duty.she went out of her way, even on days she didn't really want to (but no one ever knew that)she provided me many life lessons through conversations. She showed me how to make a loving home. I am going to miss you Nana. But I know you are in a safe and happy place where there is no longer pain or suffering. I love you to the moon and back and we will see you soon. I love you with all my heart...and I promise to stay strong.

“ I remember as a very young girl going to visit her and Uncle Vernie. I was overwhelmed at how sweet and loving she was. I could look at her ceramics for hours. They were so beautiful. It saddens me to know I didn't see her often enough as I grew older, but I know I will see her again. Until then I pray the family is comforted to know she has been reunited with so many loved ones who've gone before. I wrote this poem and I think it fits her perfectly.

While walking in his garden one day, God saw a flower that took his breath away
He decided to share it for a little while
So that it's beauty could bring others a smile
Clothed in grace so very rare, Unbridled love created to share
The fragrance it gave brought laughter and joy
And challenged others their lives to employ
This flower was special, uniquely rare And without it God realized his garden seemed bare
He decided to gather his bloom once again
Now that it had left is mark among men
And though we weep for the flower who seems too soon gone
We'll see it again in the garden where it has always belonged.
