“ Sam I will never forget that sweet big smile you always had for me everytime I walked the halls of the ymca. You never let me get by without hearing your beautiful voice yelling my name until I finally found you in the crowd to come say hello. Hearing your stories of how proud and excited you were about your jobs and helping people! I will truly miss you and am so grateful to have had the pleasure of calling you my friend! You will be missed very much.

“ Aunt Sam was very special to me. She loved to watch Disney movies since I was about 4 or 5. The first Disney movie I saw was "The Little Mermaid" . She collected all the Classics. Sam was the biggest Disney fan I ever met. She was very outgoing and got along with people. She had a lot of love. I will really miss her. She has a special place in all our hearts. Sam loved her family. My kids will miss her too. I took her out a few times a month. We went to the Mall or maybe a resteraunt. Sometimes we would just watch a movie and eat popcorn. She was so fun to be around and have company. She was my special Aunt and my best friend. I will never forget all these special memories. I love you so much Sam. I know She is with Jesus now. 🙁💔🙏
