

Ms. Margaret L. "Peggy" Harris

September 27, 2011

HARRIS, Margaret L. "Peggy", 61, of Plant City went home to be with the Lord September 27, 2011. She was preceded in death by her parents, the Rev. Samuel T., Jr. and Margaret Harris; and a brother, Tim Harris. She is survived by her brother, Jeffrey R. Harris; and nieces, Alynn Joyce and Elizabeth Harris. Peggy graduated from Maury High School in Norfolk, Virginia in 1968 and in 1972 she graduated from Muskingum College in Ohio. She began her teaching career and retired from Hillsborough County School System after 31 years of service where she taught English and Drama. Peggy was a member of First Presbyterian Church in Plant City for 38 years, where she served as an active Elder, and she will be greatly missed by all. A Celebration of Life will be held, Sunday, October 2 at 3:30 P.M at First Presbyterian Church of Plant City, 404 W. Reynolds St., where the family will receive friends beginning at 2:30 P.M. In lieu of flowers donations may be made in Peggy's memory to First Presbyterian Church of Plant City music ministry.

“ My mother and I were so sorry to hear of Peggy's death. Such a shock. I remember Peggy directing Barbara Smith and I in a play at Coleman Place Presbyterian Church. Scott talks about fishing with Peggy at the Duck Pond in Poplar Halls. I visited Coleman Place in May while there for a wedding. Lots of memories of your family! Evelyn Price sent mom the obituary. My mother, Betty Alexander, lives in College Station now near our home. Our condolences to your family!

“ To the family of Margaret Harris,
I am sorry for your loss. May you find comfort in knowing that God is "near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." (Psalm 34;18) With sympathy,
