“ I love you wella; mucho! mucho! mucho! I remember you would always tell me that when I would come visit you. I love you soo much; words can't even describe. As a baby; you always took care of me and Arley; you gave us the most special; tender loving care a grandma could ever give; "you have the heart of gold"; I say; A women with the warmest hugs and the brightest smile that would make any bad day a great day; having your company around always made me feel like the world had stopped; having just to spend time with you; and having our funny and great converastion; seemed endless; there was never time to disscuss outside troubles and problems; for having "Grandma time" was only the time you could get away from all the nonsense and just have someone who never judged you or turned thier back on you; to listen and give you advice; yet great knowledge as well. "A home is not a home with out a Grandma in it." And even though your not with us anymore; your presence will always remain; in our homes; in our mind and in spirit.

*I love you wella! Mucho! Mucho! Mucho!!!
Forever & Always in my heart-
