“ To the wisdom, the love and the kindness I saw in my sister's eyes. One Of A Kind We don't always get thunder to warn us of the rain, And there's not always consolation in things staying the same. But it has never been so hard to find meaning, In the loss of a soul so beautiful, without also grieving. Now at least the other angels know, what we knew all along, That this one was taken too soon and now our happiness is gone. Give her back to us, if only for a day So we can say goodbye in a proper way. Let us tell her how much we care And how much we'd miss her if she just weren't there. Now at least the other angels know, what we knew all along, That this one was taken too soon and now our happiness is gone. We are down on our knees Begging the angels, 'please!' But I don't think they'll change their mind Because now they know, she is one of a kind. --Your sister, Karen##imported-begin##Karen Vorhees##imported-end##

“ Rejoice in the Lord always. I will say it again: Rejoice! Let your gentleness be evident to all. The Lord is near. Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. Whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable—if anything is excellent or praiseworthy—think about such things. Whatever you have learned or received or heard from me, or seen in me—put it into practice. And the God of peace will be with you. I just met your sister Sheryl, and it was obvious to me her beauty, her honesty, her humor, her sense of freedom as well as her devotion to her family. It was evident to me how she put the Spirit of Christ into practice, in her special and unique way. What a gift it was to know her, if only for a moment, and what a gift she has been to all whose lives she has touched. Thank you Lord for the gift of Marianne. I pray for the gentle passage through the grief for all those most feeling the gap her death has created. I pray that the God of Peace and Love heal the heartache and allow the very best aspects of Marianne to remain alive in the memories and lives of all who knew her. with sympathy, Allison Edmonds Poff

“ I have sat down to write this 6 times and every time I look at my screen pictures of your beautiful face with that beautiful smile is all I see. You have been in my life since you were a child of 10 and all that time when ever we were at a family function I would seek you out because of your ability to light up the room and make everyone in your presents feel happy and wonderful. You always made me feel so warm and loved when it was time to depart,you would put your arms around me and give me a bear hug like only Marianne could do and say "untill next time". Marianne, I know in my heart when it is my turn you will be waiting with arms streched wide. So my loving neice UNTILL NEXT TIME!!! Your Loving Uncle will miss you. Uncle Dan

“ I will miss you Marianne. You always stood out no matter who was around you with your wonderful smiles and laughter. I will miss your cheerfulness at our home partys. You always made our freinds feel as if hey were part of our family because of your ability to talk to them as if you'd known them forever, even when you just met them. I am very grateful that I have been part of this family for the last 17 years and was able to be family to you. You were a true gift of god to your family, and will forever be in all of our hearts. Love you always and will never stop remembering you. Louie##imported-begin##Louie Phillips##imported-end##

“ My gorgeous, vibrant, angelic cousin. You were always the ray of sunshine in any room blessed with your presence. Boiling over with life and vitality, you were so stunning to see and had an even more beautiul heart. You were a loving, dutiful, caring wife and mother. My memories of you are so many: winning beauty pagents, slumber parties, getting into trouble at grandma's, your support in all of my endeavors; the list goes on and on and I'll cherish these remembrances forever. Our family will not be the same without you. I will miss you so very much. I know God has you in peace now and that brings some relief to my aching heart. I love you and know you will always be with each of us.##imported-begin##Alesha##imported-end##
