“ Lots of memories of Ms. Martha at FBC Midway. She and my mom fished, taught Sunday School, and sang in the choir together. She had no problem telling you how she felt about things! Even my kids knew who to turn to for prayer when they had a need. That group of SS ladies were prayer warriors. They were always there for each other. When Rita had the family stand up today...wow...what a legacy. She was a blessing and she was truly blest. We thank the Lord for her life.

“ Mema was a kind soul. She told you like it was and at the same time showed the love. She taught me how to make buttermilk biscuits although they were never good like hers and I always felt warmth and welcome in her presence. She was strong willed and loved her family fiercely. I admire Mema. I will miss her calling me honey.
I will miss her always. 💙
