“ Today, our hearts are aching & broken. As humans we mourn the loss of such a sweet, warm, & very special lady. However, as Christians – our Faith in God – comforts & reassures us & we know that one day, beyond a shadow of a doubt – we WILL see her again. While today we mourn the loss of such a dear woman – we also rejoice that Today she has no more pain. She is forever wrapped in the arms of our Lord & one day we will be reunited with her. Our thoughts & prayers go out to the entire Hodge Family today & in the days to come. We love your family dearly. Lee & Susan Brandon

Part of my journal entry today...

Martha was an amazing Godly lady, always an encouraging word and an example of grace and gentility. She raised her children well and loved her husband deeply. She laughed easily and possessed classic Southern charm. Martha reflected the beauty God meant for His creation, and she is worthy of her Heavenly rewards. Love to your family. May God's peace be with you all.
