“ My aunt was the most Christian of anyone I have ever known. She introduced me to Jesus and taught me what a Christian is supposed to be. She was so much a part of my life as a child and adult and is thought of and missed daily. She never let me forget how special I was to be her name sake. Her and my uncle Edgar, Tommy and Ray are all Angel's in heaven with the rest of our family.

“ So sad to learn of Juanita's passing..... She and Edgar were great friends of my parents and we all attended Berea Church together through the many years...Vividly remember her teaching "Beginners" (4-5 year olds) in Sunday School for many years.... Had lost contact with her and figured she probably had already passed away. Had I known she was still in the area I would certainly have visited her... Such a sweet lady!! ..My sincere condolences to all her children and grandchildren!! Rest in Jesus sweet lady!!!!!!.....Colette Moore
