“ We went to Wilson together and Tomlin and PCHS. He, Tom Rickards, the Vickers and I used to hunt rabbits and fish the water holes on the North side of PC. Marvin found a lot of arrow points and Indian beads right where I-4 goes by Orange Court. My fondest memory of Marvin is the day in 6th grade at Wilson when the PE coach Lentz told him he was going to be paddled. Marvin just walked away and said, "You ain't whipping me." That old bully couldn't do a thing to my buddy.

*Marvin Brown and Delmer we're good friends. They cared about people. Simmie's and Kay, my folks, asked me to go see Marvin but I don't get to PC often since they passed. I hope Marvin made the cut.
