“ It is with my deepest sympathy and heartfelt condolences that I lift the entire Aman family up in prayer. Nell had such a servents heart and will be missed by more than you can ever know. She Loved her family with all of her heart, and lives on in each of you. Let the Love she shared with others on a daily basis be what guides you through these difficult days ahead.

“ We have only known this special lady a couple of years now. She was indeed a special sweet lady who loved her Lord and family. She wanted to make sure before she went to see Jesus that all her family would be ready to when that day came . Our daughter married her son Roger and that is how her family became our family to. She taught Roger to be loving and kind to everyone. That is what I have seen through out this loving family.A wonderful Mother's love and care and how much she loved her Lord. We will all miss you Nell and will meet you there one day and worship and praise our wonderful Lord and Savior together. No more pain and suffering.. sending our condolences to all the family.

“ May God give Dwight (Bubba) , Mitchell, Danny, Pam and Roger and all the family the peace that you need during this time. We know that Aunt Nell is no longer suffering but her loss still hurts. I still keep a copy of my Dad's obituary in my Bible at I Corinthians Chapter 15 - it helps remind me that Jesus has overcome death and so has Nell. She has gained her eternal rest. She served her family and many others well for all her years here on earth. I still have the picture of her smiling face in my mind and that is what I will remember. She was sweet to everyone and I never heard her complain like many of us do. She serves as an example to all of us on how a servant of Christ should live and treat others. John 13:34,35
