“ Richard,

I was unaware of Mary Alice's passing and send my deepest condolences. I last spoke to her August of last year regarding her home insurance and I always loved catching up with her. I know she and Uncle Robert are together again and happy, neither are suffering. I'll be praying for you and your family as well.

“ Family and friends,

I was very sad to learn of this. Mary Alice and I were in choir together at Southside Baptist. Beautiful voice, beautiful person. Very sweet and easy to talk to, very gentle spirit.

“ Ms. Mary Alice was my alto buddy in choir. We had lots of secret signs for each other that would make us both bust out laughing at any moment. She had an amazing range...I mean she could sing with the basses. She was such a giving, compassionate person. She's been reunited now with her husband, Mr. Robert, and all the others gone before her. She has reached her final destination...the place she lived her whole life for...HEAVEN!
