“ Marjorie, I am so sorry for the loss of your mother. She was such a sweet lady and we're going to miss her at the Health Center. She was also very kind to my mom who you know from sitting together in the dining room, could be kinda difficult. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.

“ The first time I met Mary (grandma) was when Paul and I and Jake drove from Louisiana to Florida. I was so nervous to meet Paul’s grandparents! Grandma welcomed me with open arms and became my grandma instantly! I could talk to grandma about anything and everything. I would call her my “Pretty Lady” and she always laughed! She would hold my hand and start to sing “One day at a time sweet Jesus” and then give her little laugh! She would tell me she was so happy that Paul found me, and would say Paul was so lucky, she didn’t realize that I was the lucky one to have such a wonderful grandmother and grandfather! Grandma will always be in my heart and I will miss her very much! I praise the Lord that she has gone home and she has be reunited with grandpa whom she so badly missed. I love you grandma!

BE

We met the Brown's at church and we sat in the pew in front of them every service. We always knew they would be there when we arrived and I loved talking with them each Sun. before the service started. She said she was praying for my husband's brother who had been tragically injured and she always asked how he was doing. We always looked forward to their smiling faces and they truly were an inspiration of faith and their love of our Lord was very apparent. I'm sure she and her loving husband ,Norman, are having a blessed reunion and enjoying their heavenly home,together again. We are honored to have know these beautiful ,caring people .
