“ Aunt Frances, there were gaps but I've never known a world without you and Uncle Dub. You both where always there for many things in our family's life big and small. A loving sister to mom, helping her and dad any way possible when I, then Carla came along. That never ended, even after they were gone. You were the first one there and the last to leave at those times too. Naturally sisters had differing ideas but you and mom did your best caring for Lola, Connie, and Milton, thank you. For every time mom or dad where hospitalized or needed you for whatever, thank you. For the list too long to...well, list, thank you. I know there are many, many that have similar stories, all while caring for your own amazing family. Does any one (or two) people change the world? You put some mighty big ripples in the pond. All my very best to your entire family. Finally a personal thing just between us you know I rarely if ever say it, I love you. Dana
