“ Continued love, hugs and prayers for all of Mary's loving family, especially during their time of grief in her tragic passing! She loved much and was loved much!!! Our lives as many others were so touched and made better by this awesome, beautiful lady of so many talents! We will forever cherish our many memories that we shared! The terrible, sudden shock of her being taken from us, brought some peace, Praise the LORD that she never had to suffer a long illness of any kind!

What a Glorious reunion in Heaven on November 1st, when you met JESUS whom you faithfully served/worshipped while here and joined with those loved ones that preceeded you there! Thank God for his wonderful promise that one day real soon we too shall join you! We loved and missing you Mary Eunice! RIP
