“ Missy as a baby you was a tiny little angel, loved by all. You grew up to be such a sweet and caring angel to always give of your heart to others. May you rest in peace in our loving Fathers arms. Say hello to your Dad, and your grandparents (my Aunt Bell, and Uncle Woodrow) we love and miss you all!

“ From running barefoot at Papa and Ganny's to growing up and having babies you were always a good friend and cousin. Our lives did not always revolve in the same direction but we still managed to stay in touch and share special moments. You will be greayly missed... your quirky personality thru FB posts always made me smile and your love for those around you was something special. Happy Heavenly Journey My Cousin ☐☐ Cheryl

“ Even though related by marriage, you are and will forever be my cousin. (I still can't believe this. ) I'm so glad our kids grew up together. My kids always had a 2nd mom if they were in your care! You are true Angel and will forever be missed! You did a great job raising your babies and now you are in heaven hugging you daddy. Love you always Missy ❤️ Jennifer Lockard
