“ Grandma we love you and will miss you more than you'll ever know. We know this is merely a c-ya later not a goodbye as we will see you again in the house of our Father. Until then we will remember your infectious smile and your loving, kind heart. Thank you for being you and thank you for all you have done for your family.

“ For my mother who gave more to people she loved than she had to give. Who is and always will be an inspiration to everyone who has ever met her. She touched so many lives through out her life. She was and is a blessing to me and my daughter. And she will always be in or hearts for the rest of our lives. I love you mom.
