“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, it is at times difficult to receive the comfort we search for. In times like these I know I can find comfort in God's word. In John 5:28,29 He tells us " Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." As the God and Father of tender mercies, He wants you to find comfort in Him through prayer (2 Cor 1:3).

“ Milea I dont even know where to begin here. We had a bond that is hard to describe. We loved and we fought just as if I was your real sister but instead we were sisters by proxy, you knew you were stuck with me and me with you. I think that is the first thing we would tell someone new when we started dating is that listen when you date me you get her too because we are always together... lol... I love you, I have so many memories that I will never forget, too many to write about. You beautiful soul will live on in my heart, your smile will never be forgotten and you memories will carry me through the rest of my days. I will make sure to keep you alive and with me through all the memories. I LOVE YOU...
