

Mrs. Miriam Almand Krell

June 3, 1927 - August 16, 2019

Miriam Almand Krell, 92, of Lutz, Florida, born in Tampa, Florida on June 3, 1927, succumbed to Alzheimer's disease and entered into eternal rest in Plant City on August 16, 2019. She was a member of Northgate Baptist Church in Tampa, a 1944 graduate of Hillsborough High School Class, and a member of the Hillsborough High School Alumni Association. She was the daughter of Lon and Eva Almand, and grew up in Seminole Heights in Tampa. As a Tampa native, she loved children - babysitting many in her home, and taught 5 year olds at Spencer Memorial Baptist, Principal of Northgate Baptist School, loved teaching children choirs, sang in church choirs, taught ceramics, and owned a shop located on Busch Blvd. She loved her family and friends deeply, and was the "life" of parties that she always loved to plan. A true lady who loved everyone she met. She was preceded in death by her husband of 48 years, George Krell, Sr; brother, Wilber; and sisters, Eleanor and Virginia. She is survived by her sons, George Krell, Jr. (Karen), and Larry Krell (Patti); grandchildren, Tara Ellis (Tim), Matthew Krell, Desi Krell, Ashley Leon (Rafael), Jeremy Krell (Holly), and Darby Tudor (Michael); and great grandchildren, Andrew, Rebekah, Madison, Juliana, Annabella, Oliver and Sean. A funeral service will be held Saturday, August 24 at 11:00 A.M. at Hopewell Funeral Home, 6005 S County Road 39, Plant City, where the family will receive friends beginning at 10:00 A.M. Interment at Garden of Memories, Tampa. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to an Alzheimer's organization of your choice, and/or the First Baptist Church Plant

City Building Fund, 503 North Palmer Street, Plant City FL 33563.
