“ My deepest & sincere condolences are sent to the Baker Family, as well as to the Taylor brother & sisters at this very sad time. Myra was a loving & loyal sister-in-law, more like a sister to me. I remember the first time we met when she welcomed my daughters, Karen & Jane & myself with outstretched loving arms. We had the best times playing music & listening to Myra singing with so much emotion in that wonderful voice, it would bring you to tears. I always appreciated her warm hospitality and her cheerful disposition as we often shared chats over endless cups of coffee. Rest in Peace, dear Myra - we were truly blessed to know you and be part of your family. You'll never be forgotten. Love you. Mary X

“ Even though it has been many year since I last saw Aunt Myra, what memories I have of her are very fond. I remember her kindness & hospitality toward all people. I know that Heaven is better today with her presence. My prayers go out to her kids and grands because I know you will miss her. Just remember that as she went to be with her mom &dad, we as children of the Mighty God will one day all be gathered together again, with rejoicing and reminiscing . Love you guys.
