“ I did not know Nancy but I know her son. She has raised an incredible man. I've seen him shine as a partner, an enduring friend to my husband, and he's now become one of my own best friends. I think Nancy would be proud to know that her son, Bryan, is one of the most kind, generous, compassionate, and loving men I know. For him to become a man like that, I can only believe that it was shaped by her love and therefore is a testament to her motherhood and legacy. May you rest in peace, Nancy, and may beautiful memories of her wrap around those left behind.
