“ Oh, my I didn't know about Nancy, Uncle Bob, or Aunt Frannie. I so wish someone had reached me about this news. I guess we lost touch to much. I looked a the video and I recognized the red dress that had white collar on it. I think your Grandmother got it for one of you for Christmas. I was probably handed down to you girls, then it was handed down to me. I thought I was smart stuff. I wear that dress a lot... when I finished up wearin it as a dress to wear as a normal dress, I stared wearing it as a costume, pioneer girl, then Little Red Riding Hood., Mom made a wrap with a cape for me. I wore it a lot when I was teaching. I would go around to the malls an read for the Literacy program for children. I had my picture taken in the mall the was printed in the newspaper wearing that dress. Thank you. I do wish we all had stayed in touch. I miss all of you. Love you.

“ Well Nancy, I never thought that I would be writing to three people at Hopewell that I love. I never expected to lose a sister so early in life. I know that we drifted apart but, you were always my sister and I did love you. You will truly be missed. This is not good bye forever it is good bye for now. I will always love you,
Love, Terri
