“ She was my nana and I love her so very much. The memory I remember the most is when her and I drove all the way to Kissimmee Florida To go get my best friend Walter. It was so fun being in the car with her and just being able to spend more time with her. For these 18 years of my life and she always will be I will make sure if I have children I will tell them how amazing she was. I love you nana even though I know you are saying u loved me first

“ Mrs Fenner was one of the sweetest person i ever new. I remember going over to her house as a teenager to see Jenn and she would always have her tea made for us when we got there. She made the best tea ever.. My thoughts and prayers are with you Jenn and Rick. My God be with you.

“ As part of the Warren Willis Singers, Mrs Fenner was always encouraging and quick with a smile and hug to any of us "kids." As sad as it is that she has left us, I am so happy that she and Mr Fenner are reunited. They were such a beautiful couple together, lots of smiles and laughter.

“ This may seem an odd tribute, but it was from being a teenager, watching Jennifer and her mother that I realized that it was okay to have a complex, nuanced, occasionally frustrating relationship with your mother. :) The love underneath is unending and powerful. And it transcends the oh-so-short time we're given on this earth. My love and condolences - steph

“ One of my fondest memories of Nann was the weekend we drove to see Jacob in one of his summer stock shows. It was Nann, Joseph and myself in our car ... She was working on one of her many craft projects in the back seat while telling us some of the funniest stories ever ... We all laughed for 4 hours .. That was the trip I knew we're Jennifer got her sense of humor ... And her smile ... We will so miss her but that is the great thing about memories you never know when they will sneak into our minds and make us smile and smiling is always how I think of Nann .. Love from all of us!
