“ My beautiful aunt who helped me with motherly life experiences and advice after my mama passed. She was not a selfish person. She had so much love and give many baby the will to live by loving them. The love her and Uncle Chet showed the babies was amazing and the babies survived because of it.

“ I met Mr. and Mrs. Green when I worked at the Kmart pharmacy and fell in love with them both. Mrs. Green would come in with prescriptions for foster children. If insurance didn't cover the medication she would selflessly pay for it herself. She loved and cared for those children just as if they were her own. She had such love, laughter and joy for people. Her joy and laughter was contagious. She was a blessing to me. She did so much work for our Lord and Savior. She was a living example of John 15:12. My deepest sympathy to her family.
